

SARA FOSTER

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

SARA FOSTER writes page-turning psychological suspense thrillers with strong female leads. Her latest novel, When She Was Gone (2025), begins when an au pair and two small children vanish from a remote Australian beach, and is a race-against-time thriller, exploring themes around misogyny, wealth, power and control.

Sara is also the author of the acclaimed dystopian thriller The Hush and seven more bestselling psychological suspense stories: The Deceit (novella), You Don't Know Me, The Hidden Hours, All That is Lost Between Us, Shallow Breath, Beneath the Shadows and Come Back to Me. Two of her novels have been optioned for television, and You Don't Know Me was adapted into a chart-topping drama podcast series by Listnr. Sara has a PhD in creative writing (studying maternal representations in fiction) and lives in Perth, Western Australia with her husband, two daughters, three cats, Luna the cavoodle and Sunny the bearded dragon.

Find out more and follow Sara:

www.sarafoster.com.au

Substack for readers: Story Matters

Substack for writers: The Resilient Author

Facebook (/sarafosterauthor)

Instagram (@sarafosterauthor)

LinkedIn (sarafosterauthor)